Chapter 1 by intellikat

The Cookie Man was experiencing a burning sensation, so he used his preferred search engine to read up on potential causes of his particular malady. What he found was fairly concerning, and so he made an appointment with his general practitioner for the following Tuesday. He would be able to take a sick day from the insurance company; after all, this ailment was quite concerning to him.

Chapter 2 by jeffyb

The doctor was happy to see him as she always was. "What seems to be the problem?" She asked as she closed the door.

"It burns." He replied in pain, pointing between his legs.

"Well let me have a look." And she went to her knees in an instant and pulled his hips close to her face for a better inspection.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

Cookie man laid back on the exam table and relaxed.

His muscles rippled. He held a clipboard and a

"Doctor Honey. I've just got a call from the Department of Infectious Diseases. I believe we will need to quarantine this patient immediately."

Doctor Honey rose from her position and leaned on the table.

"How do we do that, Doctor Rage?"

"We need to strip the patient down and clean him head to toe. Every orifice," said the doctor, as if Cookie Man weren't even in the room.
